

2005 Online AVLN Conference

Global Collaboration for Quality Christian Education

Conference Format

Due to expected participation from institutions around the world, the majority of the conference will be conducted in an asynchronous discussion format. This format will be supplemented with live online events scheduled to accommodate as many time zones as possible. In addition, we are encouraging institutions with several people attending to schedule local face-to-face sessions to assist staff in logging into the conference, getting oriented to the online conference format, and to provide any needed technical support.

Conference Strands

For each strand you want to attend, plan to spend about an hour a day participating in the discussion and reading the presentations. Budget your time to attend the conference based on how many strands you want to attend.

- ✍ Collaboration 101: A Systems Approach to Adventist Education
- ✍ Adventist LEAP: College Courses for Advanced High School Students
- ✍ Show 'n' Tell: Adventist Distance Education Worldwide
- ✍ Integrating Faith and Learning Online
- ✍ Research on Online Learning
- ✍ Online Course Development
- ✍ Desire2Learn Training
- ✍ Cross-School Collaborations
- ✍ Tech Talk

Additional topics can be proposed by working groups from multiple institutions.

Registration Opens March 27, 2005

- ✍ USD $25 for US attendees
- ✍ USD $20 for attendees from Canada, Australia and Europe
- ✍ USD $10 for attendees from other locations.

AVLN's First
Totally Online Conference!

May 9-12, 2005

www.avln.org

Combination format of asynchronous
discussion, synchronous online events, and local face-to-face sessions.

