

2005 Online AVLN Conference

Global Collaboration for Quality Christian Education

Conference Format

Due to expected participation from institutions around the world, the majority of the conference will be conducted in an asynchronous discussion format. This format will be supplemented with live online events scheduled to accommodate as many time zones as possible.

Conference Strands

For each strand you want to attend, plan to spend about an hour a day participating in the discussion and reading the presentations. Budget your time to attend the conference based on how many strands you want to attend.

K12 Target Strand: Cross School Collaborations

How can we collaborate for student learning across institutions? Pen pals, mentoring, data collection, cross-cultural sharing, language practice, and writing projects are a few possibilities.

K-20 Strands

- ✍ Keynote: Collaboration 101: A Systems Approach to Adventist Education
- ✍ Integrating Faith and Learning Online
- ✍ Desire2Learn Training Web based support for classroom learning: quizzes, discussion, & more
- ✍ Tech Talk

Distance Learning Strands

- ✍ Show 'n' Tell: Adventist Distance Ed Worldwide
See what's happening in K-12 and higher ed distance ed!
- ✍ Research on Online Learning
- ✍ Online Course Development

Registration Opens March 27, 2005

- ✍ USD $25 for US attendees
- ✍ USD $20 for attendees from Canada, Australia and Europe
- ✍ USD $10 for attendees from other locations.
- ✍ Credit: Since the conference is short & online, credit is not available. However, information will be provided on how to print a Participation Record that can be submitted to your administrator for PAC hours.

AVLN's First
Totally Online
Conference!
May 9-12, 2005
www.avln.org

Combination format of asynchronous
discussion, synchronous online events, and local face-to-face sessions.

